St. James's, October 29.

THE following Addreſs of the Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of St. Aſaph, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of St. Aſaph, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Poulett, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop of St. Aſaph, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and the Clergy of the Dioceſe of St. Aſaph.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop of St. Aſaph, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and the Clergy of the Dioceſe of St. Aſaph, humbly beg Leave to teſtify our dutiful Adherence to your Perſon and Government, at this dangerous Juncture, when your Majeſty's Kingdoms are invaded by a popiſh Pretender to that Crown, which your Majeſty wears with ſo much true Glory, and which receives a new Luſtre from the Royal Virtues of your Majeſty who wears it.

Both Juſtice and Gratitude oblige us to acknowledge, that your Majeſty has made the Laws the ſacred and inviolable Rule of your Government ever ſince your happy Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms; and that your Majeſty's Juſtice and paternal Care of your People is felt by all your Subjects, who live in undiminiſhed and ſecure Enjoyment of all thoſe Rights and Privileges which ſo happily diſtinguiſh theſe Nations from all their Neighbours. And as no Violence, no Tyranny, no lawleſs Oppreſſion of Men in their civil or religious Rights, has ever been attempted, or ſo much as complained of, under your Majeſty's juſt and gentle Adminiſtration, ſo it is with equal Aſtoniſhment and Indignation we ſee Men under ſuch a prodigious Infatuation as to rebel againſt your Majeſty, with the certain Proſpect, if their Madneſs ſhould ſucceed, of fixing upon the Necks of themſelves, and all their Poſterity, the intolerable Yoke of popiſh Idolatry and French Tyranny, inſtead of the pure Doctrine of the Goſpel, and the Laws and Liberties of this Kingdom. We cannot therefore but profeſs our utmoſt Abhorrence of their Wickedneſs and Impiety: And we do with great Sincerity declare, that we conſider your Majeſty as, under God, the great Defender of our Holy Religion, and Guardian of our Laws, to whom alone our Allegiance is due, as inveſted in the Government of theſe Nations by all Laws divine and human, and exerciſing it with Uprightneſs and Moderation and Mercy.

We do therefore, with true and ſincere Hearts, aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, with unſhaken Loyalty, adhere to your Majeſty in all Difficulties and Dangers, and with the Hazard of all that is dear to us, defend and maintain your Majeſty's undoubted Title to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, againſt all your Enemies: And we will conſtantly inculcate upon our People their Obligations to Obedience and Loyalty to your ſacred Majeſty, and a manful Defence of your Majeſty's Perſon and Rights, by all the Tyes of Conſcience and Intereſt, which the Conſiderations of the Preſervation of their Religion, of themſelves, and their Poſterity, can ſuggeſt.

And may the Great God, who in his Mercy has ſeated your Majeſty in the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, eſtabliſh and protect you in it with his own Right Hand; give you the Hearts of all your Subjects, and the Necks of all your Enemies; that by your Majeſty and your Royal Family, the Religion and Liberties, the Church and Laws of this Kingdom, may be preſerv'd inviolate to all Generations.

The following Addreſs and Aſſociation of the County and City of Worceſter, have been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Coventry, Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid ſaid County, attended by the Lord Biſhop of the Dioceſe, Lord Deerhurſt, Lord Sandys, Thomas Winnington, Eſq; Sir John Ruſhout, George Lyttleton, James Weſt, William Bowles, Thomas Winford, John Martin, John Wind, and James Cocks, Eſqrs. being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Poulett, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs and Aſſociation his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WITH Hearts inſpired by unfeigned Loyalty, and the utmoſt Gratitude for your Majeſty's conſtant and affectionate Regard to the Happineſs of your People, your dutiful Subjects of the County and City of Worceſter, animated with a ſincere Concern for the Welfare of our Country, humbly beg Leave to offer this faithful Aſſociation for your Royal Acceptance and Approbation.

An Aſſociation for the County and City of Worceſter, entered into at the Town Hall of the City of Worceſter, October 4, 1745.

WE the Lord Lieutenant, Biſhop of the Dioceſe, Noblemen, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, Magiſtrates, Freeholders and others, whoſe Names are hereunto ſubſcribed, for the neceſſary Security of our Religion as Proteſtants, and the Preſervation of our Rights and Liberties as Engliſhmen, and in juſt Deteſtation of the unnatural Rebellion now impiouſly raiſed in the Kingdom, to ſpread Bloodſhed, Confuſion and Miſery, by the moſt violent and rapacious Hands, over our native Country, in Favour of an abjured popiſh Pretender, and in Aſſiſtance of the ambitious and bloody Houſe of Bourbon, with whom the Nation is now at War; do hereby, in the moſt ſolemn and unreſerved Manner, mutually engage and promiſe, that we will cordially and reſolutely aſſiſt and ſupport each other in preſerving the Peace of this County, and in Defence of our preſent happy Conſtitution, and his Majeſty King George's Title to the Crown, in Oppoſition to all Enemies both foreign and domeſtick.

In ſeaſonable Confirmation of this our neceſſary Reſolution, we do promiſe to pay the ſeveral Sums to which our Names are reſpectively affixed, in order to raiſe and ſupport a Body of Forces for maintaining the publick Tranquillity, and in Defence of the publick Safety; if his Majeſty ſhall pleaſe to approve and authorize the further Proceeding herein.

The following Addreſs of the Alderman, Recorder, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of Wokingham in the Counties of Berks and Wilts, has been preſented to his Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Berks: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Alderman, Recorder, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Corporation and Town of Wokingham in the Counties of Berks and Wilts.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Alderman, Recorder, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of your ancient Corporation and Town of Wokingham, beg Leave to join in the joyful Congratulations of your faithful People, on your ſafe Return to theſe your Kingdoms, after having contributed, by your powerful Influence abroad, ſo much towards the eſtabliſhing the Peace and Quiet of Europe, as the fixing the Great Duke on the Imperial Throne of Germany moſt undoubtedly has done.

We deſire your Royal Acceptance of our further Congratulations on the late glorious Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms in the Weſt Indies, by which the Hands of the very worſt of our Enemies are not only greatly weakened, but the naval and natural Strength of theſe Nations proportionably encreaſed.

And now, Dread Sir, give us Leave, with Hearts truly ſenſible of the many Miſeries that muſt neceſſarily enſue, ſhould the barbarous Promoters of Confuſion and Diſorder ſucceed in their unnatural and traiterous Attempts, to expreſs our utter Abhorrence of the preſent Rebellion; a Rebellion ſtirred up and carried on in the Northern Parts of your Kingdom in Favour of a popiſh and abjured Pretender.

We beg Leave likewiſe to aſſure your Majeſty, with all humble Submiſſion, that in this Time of Danger and Trouble we will not be wanting in our ſeveral Stations to exert ourſelves, like Men and Proteſtants, in Support of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government; in Support of the Proteſtant Succeſſion, as by Law eſtabliſhed, in your illuſtrious Houſe; in Support of ourſelves, our Religion, Liberties and Laws; as well knowing that theſe, and whatever other National Bleſſings can be dear and valuable to a free People, depend, under God, for their Continuance and Support, upon King George, our only lawful and rightful Sovereign.

The following Aſſociation of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, Merchants, and other Inhabitants of the Town and County of Poole, has been preſented to his Majeſty by John Gulſton, Gulſton, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Harrington, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State: Which Aſſociation his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, Merchants, and other Inhabitants of the Town and County of Poole, moſt humbly beg Leave to approach your moſt ſacred Majeſty with the following Aſſociation, as our indiſpenſible Duty to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government in Church and State,

At the Guildhall of the Town and County of Poole, the 7th Day of October, 1745.

WE the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, Merchants, and other Inhabitants of the ſaid Town and County of Poole, being duly ſenſible of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under the mild and juſt Adminiſtration of his preſent Majeſty King George, and having the utmoſt Deteſtation and Abhorrence of the preſent moſt unnatural Rebellion begun in Scotland, encouraged and ſupported by the moſt inveterate Enemies of our Trade and Navigation, and of all our Rights both Eccleſiaſtical and Civil, in Favour of a popiſh Pretender, educated and trained up in all the Bigotry and Superſtition of the idolatrous Religion of the Church of Rome, and in the Politicks of the Courts of France and Spain, do hereby, before God and Man, ſolemnly, ſincerely, and heartily aſſociate, and, with one Mind and Heart, unite and firmly bind ourſelves one to the other, jointly and ſeverally, hereby publickly declaring, that we will, with all our Power, and at the Expence of all that is dear and valuable to us in this World, now in this dangerous Conjuncture, and at all Times, ſtand by, defend and ſupport his Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and the Succeſſion of the Crown in his moſt illuſtrious Houſe, againſt all Pretenders whatſoever, and againſt all his Majeſty's Enemies foreign or domeſtick; and we will, according to the ſolemn Oath many of us are under to his Majeſty, uſe our utmoſt Endeavours, without any Fear, Favour, or Hopes of Reward, of or from any Perſons whomſoever, to diſcover and bring to condign Puniſhment, all Perſons who openly or ſecretly ſhall be concerned in carrying on any treaſonable or other Practices deſtructive to his Majeſty, or our moſt excellent Conſtitution in Church and State.

And we do mutually promiſe and bind ourſelves one to the other, that we will chearfully, at all Times, meet and join together in ſuch Meaſures as ſhall be for the Honour and Safety of his Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and for the Welfare and Preſervation of this Nation to which we belong.

The following Addreſs of the Commander in Chief and Captains of the Royal Navy aſſembled at Plymouth, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Sandwich, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Poulett, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Commander in Chief and the Captains of your Majeſty's Royal Navy at Plymouth.

May it pleaſe your moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Commander in Chief and Captains in your Royal Navy now aſſembled at Plymouth, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of Zeal and Fidelity in the preſent Conjuncture, when with the utmoſt Indignation, we ſee your Britiſh Dominions invaded, and one Part of them ſeduced to Rebellion by a popiſh and abjured Pretender to your Crown and Dignity. We are truly ſenſible, Sir, of the Happineſs we enjoy under your juſt and equal Government, and how cloſely interwoven with the Preſervation of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and the Proteſtant Eſtabliſhment, are our Laws, Religion, Liberties, and every Thing that is dear to Engliſhmen; and we are determined, as becomes our Station, to defend all theſe valuable Conſiderations with the laſt Drop of our Blood. We farther beg Leave to make a Tender to your Majeſty of our free and voluntary Service, and earneſtly requeſt, that while the reſt of your faithful Subjects are arming in their ſeveral Diſtricts and Provinces, at their own well-placed Expence, we may be permitted to diſcover a Zeal for your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, no leſs diſintereſted than theirs, and may have the Honour and Happineſs of ſerving your Majeſty and our Country, with no other Reward than the Conſciouſneſs of doing our Duty, and the Glory of our Cauſe.

We crave Leave to ſubſcribe, with the ſtrongeſt Attachment,

Your Majeſty's
Moſt dutiful Subjects and Servants.

Loſtwithiel in the County of Cornwall, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Sir John Croſſe, Bart. one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Loſtwithiel in the County of Cornwall.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Loſtwithiel, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Return to your Britiſh Dominions, and on the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms in the Conqueſt of Cape Breton, ſo important to the Trade and Commerce of your Majeſty's Subjects.

We are filled with the greateſt Abhorrence to find, that there are any Perſons in theſe Kingdoms, ſo unworthy of the many and great Bleſſings we have ſo long enjoyed under your Majeſty's mild and gracious Government, as to join with the avowed Enemies of our Religion and Liberties, in Favour of a popiſh and abjured Pretender to your Majeſty's Throne.

Permit us to aſſure your Majeſty, we are fully determin'd, with our Lives and Fortunes, to defend your Majeſty's undoubted Right and Title to the Crown of theſe Realms, as well againſt the Pretender and his Family, as againſt all other Invaders and Diſturbers of the Peace of theſe Kingdoms.

We take this for a happy Omen, that the ſame Divine Hand will be graciouſly pleaſed to compleat our Preſervation, by crowning your Majeſty's Arms with Succeſs, againſt the deſperate Invaders of our Country, and all their wicked Supporters and Abbettors. Your Majeſty's Return to your Britiſh Dominions, upon the firſt Notice of our Danger, is a moſt affecting Inſtance of your paternal and tender Concern for the Peace and Security of your Britiſh Subjects. And as we conſider every Attempt againſt your ſacred Perſon and Government, to be a direct Invaſion of all our Religious and Civil Rights, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our conſtant and unſhaken Reſolution, upon this and every other Occaſion, to engage our Lives and Fortunes in the juſt Defence and Support of both, and of the Proteſtant Succeſſion of the Crown in your Royal Houſe, againſt all popiſh Pretenders whatſoever.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of your Majeſty's moſt ancient Boroughs of Aldborough and Borroughbridge in the County of York.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, having a due Senſe of the Happineſs we enjoy under your Majeſty, and a juſt Terror of the Miſeries and Calamities which muſt befall us and our Poſterity under a popiſh Government, feel in ourſelves the utmoſt Deteſtation and Abhorrence of the wicked and execrable Deſigns of thoſe, who have ſtirred up a Rebellion in Favour of a popiſh Pretender to your Crown.

We ſhould be guilty of the higheſt Ingratitude, and an unaccountable Neglect of our Duty and Intereſt, if we did not, upon ſuch an Occaſion, approve ourſelves faithful and loyal Subjects.

We crave Leave therefore to declare our unalterable Fidelity and Allegiance to your Majeſty,

and

and to assure your Majesty we will use our utmost Endeavours to defend our Religion and Liberties, and your Majesty's undoubted Right and Title to the Government of these Realms, and will oppose with Heart and Hand the abjured Pretender, and all his exiled Race, and do all we can to bring to condign Punishment every Traytor to the present happy Establishment.

May the Great God permit your Majesty long to reign over us, and, for a Blessing upon our Posterity, may there ever be a constant Succession of Protestant Princes in your illustrious House of Hanover to govern these Realms to future Generations.

An unnatural Rebellion already raised, and powerful Invasions threatened, by the restless and inveterate Enemies of the Trade and Prosperity of this Nation, are sufficient to alarm every thinking Person, and to engage every Lover of his Country in a zealous Defence of the most valuable Blessings we enjoy as Englishmen and Protestants, our Religious and Civil Rights; which we hope will be transmitted to our latest Posterity, under the Protection of your Majesty and your illustrious House.

Given under our Common Seal this 10th Day of October 1745.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Corporation of Evesham, has been presented to his Majesty by Sir John Rushout, Bart. one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Corporation of Evesham, in the County of Worcester.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of Evesham, in the County of Worcester, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon your safe and happy Return to these your British Dominions; and to express our utmost Abhorrence and Detestation of the unnatural Rebellion which is broke out in the North Part of your Majesty's Dominions in Favour of a popish Pretender. But as we enjoy our Religion and Liberties, and every Thing that is dear and valuable to us, under your Majesty's mild and gracious Government, we think ourselves obliged, both in Duty and Interest, to support and defend your Majesty, to the utmost of our Powet, against all your Enemies whatsoever.

Given under our common Seal this 20th of September, in the Year of our Lord God 1745.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of your Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, in General Sessions assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, being deeply sensible of the many great and invaluable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, and of your tender Regard to our civil and religious Rights, are greatly surprized to find, that several of your Majesty's Subjects, forgetting the Allegiance they owe to your Majesty, as well as the natural Love they ought to bear to their Country, should enter into a wicked Conspiracy, in Concert (as it is too much to be feared) with foreign Powers, for raising a Rebellion in this Kingdom, in Favour of a popish Pretender, with a traitorous Design to overthrow our excellent Constitution in Church and State, and to ſubject a Proteſtant Free People to all the Miſeries of Tyranny and Superſtition, at a Time when your Majeſty is engaged in a juſt War for the Support of the Honour and Commerce of Great Britain, and for the General Liberty of Europe.

We beg Leave on our Part to aſſure your Majeſty of our Loyalty and Fidelity to your ſacred Perſon and Government, and of our Zeal in exerting all the Authority we are entruſted with, in ſuch a Manner, as may moſt effectually tend to promote the Safety and Honour of your Majeſty's Reign, and to preſerve the publick Peace and Tranquillity.

To theſe our hearty Profeſſions of Duty and Fidelity, give us Leave to add our moſt ardent Wiſhes, that your Majeſty may long live and reign over us; that you may receive from all your Subjects the Returns which Duty and Gratitude can inſpire; and that your Royal Iſſue may be eſtabliſhed, for the Welfare and Happineſs of your People, upon the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, to all future Generations.

P. Walter, Clerk of the Peace of Middleſex.

The following Addreſs of the Proteſtant Diſſenters of Ireland, having been tranſmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Cheſterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Proteſtant Diſſenters of Ireland.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

AT a Time when the Enemies to your Government, and to the Peace and Happineſs of theſe Kingdoms, have kindled the Flames of War in your Dominions, in Favour of a popiſh Pretender to your Crown; permit us, amongſt your other faithful Subjects, to expreſs our Deteſtation and Abhorrence of this unnatural Rebellion, and at the ſame Time to renew our moſt ſincere and affectionate Profeſſions of inviolable Duty and Loyalty to your Majeſty.

We look upon this wicked and inſolent Attempt of your Enemies, as having a direct Tendency to deprive us of every Thing that can render Life valuable to free-born Subjects and Proteſtants. And as it is under a Proteſtant King alone, that we can expect to live free and happy, we ſhall, with a Spirit becoming Men who have a juſt Taſte and Reliſh for Civil and Religious Liberty, at all Times chearfully hazard every Thing that is dear to us in this World, in the Defence and Support of your Majeſty's undoubted Title to the Crown of theſe Realms, and of the Succeſſion to it, ſo happily eſtabliſhed in your Royal Houſe.

It is with the higheſt Satisfaction that we reflect upon the brave and ſucceſsful Stand made by our Anceſtors in this Kingdom, during the Reign of our late glorious Deliverer King William, againſt Popery and arbitrary Power, at a Time when our Liberties were in the utmoſt Danger from a popiſh Prince, at the Head of a popiſh Army, openly abetted and ſupported by that Power, which has ſo long and ſo frequently troubled the Repoſe of Europe: And we can, with the greateſt Pleaſure and Confidence, aſſure your Majeſty, that you will find the Poſterity of thoſe Men, the Proteſtant Diſſenters of Ireland, animated with an equal Zeal for publick Liberty, whenever the Circumſtances of the Nation ſhall make it neceſſary to call upon them to take up Arms in Defence of your Majeſty and their Country.

We beg Leave alſo, on this Occaſion, to expreſs our unfeigned Joy upon your Majeſty's ſafe Return, from attending the important Affairs of Europe, to your Britiſh Dominions, which fills our Minds with the pleaſing Hope, that by the Wiſdom of your Councils, and your continued Vigilance for the Safety and Happineſs of your Subjects, the Attempts of your reſtleſs Enemies, whether at Home or Abroad, will be ſpeedily defeated, and end in the firmer Eſtabliſhment of your Government, which, under God, is the beſt and ſtrongeſt Security theſe Nations can have for publick Happineſs and Proſperity.

Signed in the Name and by the Appointment of the Proteſtant Diſſenters of Ireland, by

Charles Moore, Chairman.

The following Addreſs of the Merchants and Traders of the City of Dublin, having been tranſmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Cheſterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Merchants and Traders of the City of Dublin.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Merchants and Traders of your City of Dublin, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Arrival in your Britiſh Dominions; and at the ſame Time to expreſs our Abhorrence and juſt Indignation at the inſolent and unnatural Rebellion broke out in North Britain, againſt your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon and Government.

When we reflect on the immediate Dependance all that has ever been dear to Proteſtants and Britons hath on the preſent happy Settlement of the Crown in your illuſtrious Houſe, and on the Tranquillity and Happineſs we have enjoyed under your Majeſty's moſt mild and gracious Government; our Intereſt concurs with our Duty, in the Reſolution we have taken, to oppoſe, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, all Attempts in Favour of a popiſh Pretender, ſo often and ſo ſolemnly abjured. And we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, at this particular Juncture, exert our utmoſt Endeavours in Support of the publick Credit.

We are ſenſible, that as this raſh Enterprize muſt be the Object of your Majeſty's Contempt, ſo it can ſerve no other End, but to unite all your true Proteſtant Subjects in the Common Cauſe, and to eſtabliſh that Throne it would vainly attempt to ſhake.

May that good Providence, which has ſo often and ſo ſignally interpoſed in Behalf of the Religion, Laws and Liberties of theſe Kingdoms, crown your Majeſty's Arms with Succeſs; make the important Acquiſition of Cape Breton an happy Preſage of future Victories; and long preſerve your Majeſty the Guardian and Protector of an affectionate and free People.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Burgeſſes and Commons of the County of the Town of Drogheda, having been tranſmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Cheſterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Burgeſſes and Commons of the County of the Town of Drogheda.

WE your Majeſty's moſt faithful Subjects beg Leave, upon this Occaſion, to declare our hearty Deteſtation of the preſent wicked and vain Attempts againſt your Majeſty's Crown and Kingdoms, in Favour of a popiſh Pretender.

Our Sufferings and Depreſſion in the Reign of the late King James; our Revival and happy Deliverance by the Hand of the Great King William, and the Acceſſion of your illuſtrious Houſe to the Crown of theſe Realms, have for ever armed us againſt Popery and arbitrary Power: And the innumerable Bleſſings derived to us from your Majeſty's mild and juſt Adminiſtration, firmly convince us, that when we are moſt vigilant for your Majeſty's Safety, we provide moſt effectually for our own.

Permit us, Royal Sir, animated with theſe Principles, to tender the warmeſt Efforts, for the Defence of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, that true Loyalty and Affection can inſpire, and to aſſure our moſt gracious Sovereign, that we ſhall think our Lives and Fortunes only valuable, as they can aſſiſt in preſerving to us the Happineſs of your Majeſty's Government, and the Succeſſion of it in your Royal Line, upon which the Welfare of us and our Poſterity depends.

Given under our Common Seal this Thirtieth Day of September 1745.

The following Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Down, having been tranſmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Cheſterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Down.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg your Royal Permiſſion, with Hearts full of Zeal and Affection, to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Return to your Britiſh Dominions, and to expreſs the ſincere Joy which we feel at the ſignal Succeſſes of your Majeſty's Navy, both in protecting the Commerce of theſe Kingdoms, and in diſtreſſing that of our Enemies, and in the invaluable Acquiſition of Cape Breton.

We cannot but with the utmoſt Abhorrence and Indignation take Notice of the daring Attempts of the Enemies, and Pretender to your Majeſty's Crown and Kingdoms, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland. And we humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that there are at leaſt Twenty Thouſand loyal Proteſtants in this County, ready with their Lives and Fortunes, to defend and ſupport your ſacred Perſon, Royal Family and Government, againſt all traiterous and rebellious Inſurrections and foreign Invaſions, in Favour of Popery and French Power.

It is our earneſt and conſtant Prayer, that the Divine Providence may guard and protect your ſacred Majeſty againſt the reſtleſs and malicious Deſigns of the Enemies of our happy Conſtitution, and long continue to us the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild, juſt and prudent Adminiſtration.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Free Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Saltaſh in Cornwall, has been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE the Mayor, Aldermen, Free Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of your Majeſty's ancient and loyal Borough of Saltaſh in Cornwall, at the Guildhall there aſſembled, with all Humility beg Leave to approach your Majeſty, to congratulate your ſafe and ſeaſonable Return to your Britiſh Dominions; and at the ſame Time to offer (which we chearfully do) our Mite, the Subſtance of our Fortunes, with all that is dear and valuable to us, to your Majeſty's Diſpoſal and Commands; and we dare affirm, that though we have not been ſo early in addreſſing your Majeſty as a Number of your Subjects have been, yet none of them can be more faithfully ſo than we are. We will continually pray and hope, that in Caſe the moſt audacious and abandoned Attempters to diſturb your ſacred Majeſty in the Enjoyment of your undoubted Right to your Crown and Dominions, and us in that of your paternal Care and Protection, ſhould, by any Infatuation or Inſtigation, encreaſe their Numbers, they may only tend to encreaſe their Shame, and advance your Glory. And to that End we are now taking Meaſures (to the utmoſt of our Abilities, equal with the moſt forward of your Majeſty's Subjects) in making a Stand againſt, and rendring abortive all ſuch Attempts.

We have always ſhewn our Loyalty to your Royal and Illuſtrious Houſe, ever ſince we have been bleſſed with their Preſence among us; and have always ſent Members to repreſent us in Parliament, ſtrictly attach'd to our happy Conſtitution; and are determin'd to continue ſo to do, and on all Occaſions to ſhew ourſelves to be,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and moſt loyal Subjects and Servants.

From the Head Quarters of the Saxons at Salnay, Oct. 23.

The 20th Inſtant we received Advice, that the Enemy had marched the Day before towards Landſhut, having entirely evacuated Bohemia; and according to the laſt Accounts they were actually encamped between Lieban and Landſhut with the main Body of the Army, the whole conſiſting at moſt in 10 or 12,000 Men, the reſt being already detached in order to form a Chain from Lieban towards Tropau. The 21ſt Major General de Kalckreuth marched with two Regiments, Preyſing's Cavalry and Wettes's Infantry, to Hoenmauth; ſo that if the Enemy ſhould undertake any Thing towards Moravia, they would be at Hand to go to its Aſſiſtance, it being certain, that the Inhabitants there are in the greateſt Anxiety on this Account, Eſtafettes coming daily to the Prince from adjacent Places. Lieutenant Colonel Gaſtheim ſet out Yeſterday Night on his Return from Francfort, and To-Day Orders were given, that the Quarter-Maſters of the Army ſhould reaſſemble themſelves To-morrow, in order to mark out a Camp; but it is not known at preſent on which Side the Army will march, but it is ſuppoſed that it will be towards Gitſchin. The Regiments of Cavalry, Hohenembs, Philibert, and Serbelloni, as alſo thoſe of Infantry, Max. Heſſe, Baden, and Andlau, are not to ſend their Quarter-Maſters; which makes it believed that thoſe Regiments are deſtined for another Expedition, which is at preſent ſent alſo unknown. The Prince has ordered Colonel Trenck to return to the Army with his Body of Light Troops, to give an Account of the Contributions which he has received in Sileſia, as alſo with regard to many Complaints which the Officers of his Regiment have made againſt him; for which Purpoſe a Court Martial is appointed to enquire into them.

Leghorne, October 11, N. S. On the 27th paſt in the Evening, Admiral Rowley with Part of His Majeſty's Squadron attempted to bombard the City of Genoa, and after throwing Forty two Shells, the next Morning he ſteered with the Fleet to the Weſtward, not having done, or received any Damage. On the 29th the Fleet anchored off Final, and bombarded that Place all that Day and Part of the next Night with little Succeſs. The Maſters of ſeveral Veſſels arrived from thence ſay, that only two Houſes, and Part of an Oratory had been beaten down. On the 30th the Fleet ſteered to the Weſtward, and have ſince anchored off the Town of St. Remo, which they reduced to a Heap of Rubbiſh. Two Veſſels laden with Corn and Oil were taken by his Majeſty's Ships, and another ſunk. The laſt Letters from Genoa mention, that Veſſels arrive there Weekly laden with Proviſions and Warlike Stores. The Republick continue fortifying the City and Coaſt, and in the Caſtle of St. Maria, at Porto Spetia, they have placed 60 Pieces of Cannon, and erected two Batteries of 18 and 12 Guns, at the Entrance of the Harbour. They have alſo built a regular Fort at Lerici, and planted 12 Pieces of Cannon, which will annoy the Veſſels at Anchor in the Harbour of Spetia. Letters from the Camp of the Auſtrians at Caſel Monſerato of the 4th Inſtant, adviſe, that the Auſtrian and Sardinian Troops were joined again. Theſe laſt ſuffered in the Surprize of the 27th, but not ſo conſiderably as was at firſt reported. The Army is at preſent advantageouſly encamped, having the Hills on the Right, the Po on their Left, and the Town at their Backs. On the 30th, the Enemy inveſted Valentia, and on the 1ſt Inſtant, the Auſtrians ſent away all their heavy Baggage and unneceſſary People out of their Camp. Upon the 2d, they finiſhed their Bridges over the Po, and detached a ſtrong Corps of Cavalry and Sclavonians under the Command of General Count di Groſs for the Lomelline, the Enemy having ſent a ſtrong Detachment the ſame Way in the Morning over the Bridges which they took at Beſſignano. Letters from Mantua of the 1ſt Inſtant, mention the Arrival there of Prince Lichtenſtein, who is to command the Auſtrian Army in Italy in Chief, which it is reported is ſoon to be reinforced. In this Port are his Majeſty's Ships Roebuck, Liverpool, Nazareth Fire-Ship, and a Xebeck, who are to ſail To-morrow in Queſt of Admiral Rowley.

Whitehall, October 28.

By a Meſſenger arrived Yeſterday, who left Marſhal Wade, with the Forces under his Command, at Darlington on the 26th Inſtant, we have an Account, that all the Troops from Flanders were arrived at Newcaſtle, Berwick and Holy-Iſland, except five Companies of Colonel Ligonier's, and three of Brigadier Price's, the Baggage of the Whole, and one Ship with Horſes, which were ſtill miſſing.

Whitehall, October 29.

By Letters from Inverneſs of the 11th and 12th, every Thing was very quiet in that Part of the Country. The Earl of Loudon arrived there on the 11th, in order to take upon him the Command of the Troops in thoſe Parts, and of the twenty new Independent Companies raiſing there, under the Direction of the Lord Preſident of the Seſſion, which were in great Forwardneſs, and would, in all probability, ſoon be compleated.

Letters from Berwick of the 25th adviſe, that the laſt Accounts they had of the Rebels, were, that they ſtill gave out they intended to march Southward; but that in the mean Time they had marked out a ſtrong Camp, Weſt of Dalkeith, about four Miles South from Edinburgh, with Dalkeith on their Left, Newbattle Water in their Front, and Melvill Rivulett in their Rear; but ſo as to be open on their Right towards Polton. Theſe two Rivulets join below Dalkeith at a Place called Smeaton, and fall into the Sea at Muſſelburgh. They have got one Du Boyer with them whom they call a French Ambaſſador.

Other Letters mention, that the Pretender's Eldeſt Son had his Quarters at the Duke of Buccleugh's Houſe: That the Rebels were 8000 effective Men, excluſive of what was called his Guards: That they had brought all their Baggage out of Edinburgh to that Camp; and that they rob and deſtroy all round them. There was likewiſe a Report of a French Ship being arrived at Aberbrothock, with Bombs, Mortars, and heavy Cannon, with Cannoniers and Bombardiers.

By Advices from Berwick of the 25th inſtant, at Twelve o'Clock at Night, there is an Account of four Companies of Brigadier Price's having got into Holy Iſland; and that the ſame Evening there were two Tranſports more anchor'd off Berwick, in one of which there were three Companies more of Brigadier Price's, and in the other, five of Colonel Ligonier's Regiment.
